

Ashish Rudhra: Journey from failure student to digital entrepreneur

Delhi, Jul 29, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dreaming is important only then you will have the courage to fulfill them. Ashish Rudhra, who believes the same, is a well-known digital entrepreneur today. Ashish tells that he never thought about that he would become a digital entrepreneur. Just as time went on, he kept working hard.

All this began after the 12 failed in the exam when Ashish was completely shattered. One day when Ashish was watching TV, he saw something about digital, just from there, Ashish decided that now only to do digital. He achieved this level with great dedication and hard work. He had to see a lot of trouble in the meantime.

At the age of just 17, Ashish started 2 companies and gave training to more than 4500 students within 1 year. For this, he was also awarded the "Jagruk Bhartiya Gaurav Award" in 2019. Today Ashish's name has been taken abroad in the country. Ashish says that even today she keeps learning something. They believe that a human being should always learn something.

Ashish has his own team today and he works for celebrity management, film promotion, website, SEO, from his company Rudhra Technologies, and from the other company Digital Rudhra, he provides training in digital marketing. Recently, he has started a music production company with his close friend Ayush Sabat. His dream is to give small artists a big opportunity So that the talent of the artists is exposed to the world. And so Ashish and his close friend Ayush are working hard.

Media Contact

Kartik Gupta

info@rudhratechnologies.com

Source : Startup Insider

See on IssueWire