

Condo Designed by Local Famed Architect Brie Husted For Sale

Home Listed By Glass House Real Estate's Khalil El-Ghoul

Washington, D.C, Jul 13, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Designed by the late DC native and famed architect Brie Husted, one of the two spectacular Symera condominiums is currently listed by Khalil El-Ghoul, Glass House Real Estate at $1,650,000. Husted is known for her awe-inspiring designs of popular DC restaurants such as Domku, El Chuco, and Masa 14 along with many residential designs. The distinctive Symera, a pair of condos, was designed by Husted and built in 2006. The upscale condominium is located at 1621 12th Street, N.W. in the highly desirable Logan Circle neighborhood.

With almost 2500 square feet of indoor and outdoor space, including the best rooftop in Logan Circle, this incredible 2 bedroom, 2 bath penthouse loft located on a serene street in the heart of Logan Circle is ideal for entertaining. The private rooftop extends unbelievable 360-degree city views, a full outdoor kitchen with a grill, sink, refrigerator, kegerator, and an abundance of room to lounge. The marvelous rooftop is ideal for family dinners, a romantic stay-at-home date night, or to host a large get-together.

The two-level penthouse condominium offers light-filled, open spaces with soaring 11-foot ceilings and skylights providing incredible light, floor to ceiling windows, sizeable bedrooms, plenty of closet space, vintage reclaimed oak floors, two additional terraces, a hot stone fireplace, and private parking. The elegant penthouse also offers Grohe fixtures, Toto toilets, and a kitchen that boasts Fireslate counters, Miele & Subzero appliances, Artcraft custom kitchen cabinets, and designer lighting.

The unsurpassed location overlooks Logan Circle and provides a picturesque park-like setting set back from the quiet street. Logan Circle is one of Washington's trendiest and most stylish neighborhoods. Residents enjoy a lavish life in the Symera with a variety of amazing restaurants, quaint coffee shops, exhilarating art galleries, and a vibrant nightlife all within steps of their luxurious home. With Whole Foods and METRO just a short distance from Symera residents rarely have to leave the neighborhood.

This lovely, spacious penthouse set on a peaceful street offers regal living in an upscale neighborhood with numerous eateries, a lively nightlife, easy access to METRO, and downtown Washington conveniently nearby. Please Contact: khalil@glasshousere.com at Glass House Real Estate to discuss this home.

Media Contact

Glass House Real Estate

erica@glasshousere.com

5712354821

145 Church St NW #301 Vienna, VA 22180

Source : Glass House Real Estate

See on IssueWire