

Dallas Private Security Guard Company Opens Its Service In New Areas

Dallas's Security Company, Stratton Security, announces its new service areas. They include Frisco, Plano, McKinney, and Fort Worth.

Dallas, Jul 24, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Prominent Dallas private security company, Stratton Security, has announced expanding its security service in some Texas cities. Stratton Security is one of the top-level Security companies in Dallas that has been serving Dallas residential and commercial security services for over 25 years. The company offers a wide range of security services, such as providing armed and unarmed guards for apartments, hospitals, banks, auto dealerships, corporate institutions, patrol service and many more.

"We have been known for our top-notch security service in Dallas before establishing ourselves as a new Security company in Frisco. We hope that Frisco's residents can also use our services to secure their assets from unwanted activities such as vandalism, violence, and crimes", said the company's manager.

As one of the best Security guard companies in Plano, the company promises to keep its high-level security services at the same level. They trained their security guards to handle all security and emergencies as well as providing hospitality to its clients because of its client's satisfaction and safety is their top priority.

Even though McKinney is one of the cities that is safe to live, security issues still become a concern for its residents. According to the report, 1 of 97 residents, becoming a victim of a property crime. It includes arson, burglary, motor vehicle theft, shoplifting, and vandalism. Therefore, Stratton Security needs to open Security services in McKinney. For McKinney residents, it is much easier now to hire reliable Private Security Guard Companies like Stratton Security as the company applies high-level security standards to protect its clients. Not only providing high-level security standards, but the personnel is also trained to treat its clients with high-level hospitality, to ensure they get a superior service that is far better than they have expected.

About Stratton Security

Stratton Security is Dallas's Security Company that provides a wide range of top-notch security services with hospitality. The security company that provides armed and unarmed security guards has opened many branches in Texas, including in Fort Worth. Now, as one of the of the leader of Security companies in Fort Worth, Stratton Security always maintains its top-level service for customer safety and satisfaction. Even though they provide all-in security services, they can also provide tailored security services as requested. For more information about Stratton Security and its services, please visit www.strattonsecuritytx.com.

Media Contact

Stratton Security

Marketing@strattonamenities.com

1(866) 489-9919

Source : Stratton Security

See on IssueWire