Elephant in the Room

Dank Lucas's 2020 release, "Elephant in the Room" is the first time the artist has used his voice this way, and from the sound of it – it will not be the last time. "Elephant in the Room," definitely will raise discussion amongst anyone who listens to the track. According to Dictionary.Cambridge.Org, "If you say there is an elephant in the room, you mean that there is an obvious problem or difficult situation that people do not want to talk about." Touching on serious topics throughout the track gives you more reason to hit repeat. Dank presents picture-perfect sounds throughout this genre-bending track that gives Hip Hop an emotional twist, on top of contemporary Hip Hop sounds displayed over a wave of serious production. "Elephant in the Room" is available on all major music and streaming sites.

OG Dank Lucas found his way to music at an early age. By knee high he was enamored with hip hop and the infatuation continued to grow as he got older. In many ways, music helped ease his mental strife and provided solace at the end of the day when reality got to be too much. Having been through it all and then some, Dank Lucas writes from the heart and isn't afraid to get personal. Wearing his heart on his sleeve has paid off so far. In the past Dank has had success with other tracks, so he is planning on having the same success with "Elephant in the Room," with hopes of evoking change in the world. Not starting music until 2011 and taking serious in 2014, he may be only slightly seasoned in the industry, but he knows the business. Being business savvy will give you longevity in the music industry. He knows what it takes to survive during tough times and paints those pictures with every track that he releases. Always having a plan to keeping positive energies, going into positive things is a top priority for Dank. Dank was not always focused to speak on topics like he did on "Elephant in the Room." Let Dank tell it, "His career is influenced by the life he lived before rap. It influenced him to find his lane and hustle hard. And he was tired of going to jail a lot so that influenced him to find a legal hustle centered around weed." Get to know the emcee and you will see his feature in "The Source Magazine" and being "Hustler of the Year" is just a start in his career.
