

Dj Daddy Lysol releases new hit single

“Back Up Bitch” July 7th 2020

Toronto, Jul 5, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Daddy Lysol a new and upcoming artist from Toronto, Ontario is set to release his new track straight out of quarantine. His new single speaks to the economy and industries new rules of social distancing taking it to a next level. The LGBTQ artist for the past 8- 10 weeks of quarantine started his own nightly DJ room on Zoom.us which is open to all the public, in support of many different charities and causes relating to the Black lives matter movement. After 10 years in the Canadian Drag performance industry, he was signed with Boreal Management as a DJ and Artistic Director; he has worked behind the scenes for 4 years. When asked why he became an artist he responded “I am an artist because, I wanted to bring positivity and raw sexual energy to everything I do.”

The release date for the single is set to start dropping in online stores as of July 7th. Daddy Lysol wants to ensure all of his fans that there will be an album release coming toward the end of the year, in 2020. Although there has been no release date as of yet he will be announcing further developments after his music video drops in September 2020.
