Morristown, Jul 20, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Artist and songwriter John Futrell, better known as J.Ransom, is back on the scene with a brand new single: Amazement. The track marks the 8th single release for J.Ransom in 2020, and it is yet another example of his expanding songwriting and creative range. The song also excels in terms of production and recording, with a crisp sound that highlights J.Ransom’s articulate flow, as well as the nuances behind the songwriting. “Amazement” is very kaleidoscopic and he channels his passion through his music, connecting with the audience in a very distinctive and dynamic way, transcending the traditional approach of art and diving deep into the realm of personal connection.

As an artist who has been putting out records since 2015, J.Ransom likes to approach every new song with a different attitude, and “Amazement” is definitely no exception.
