

Leving wins for dad, kids in case involving domestic violence report

Chicago, Jul 8, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - A Chicago-area father triumphed in court on behalf of himself and one of his daughters, who were reportedly victims of domestic violence. The father was represented by the Law Offices of Jeffery M. Leving Ltd.

The father sought exclusive possession of his two little girls. It was reported that the mother was abusing one, and was physically violent with him in front of the kids. According to court documents, the cops were called to assist with an incident of alleged abuse by the mother.

"This is a ghastly situation, with the father frightened about his children's safety, and his own. He came to me for help, knowing that my firm has the knowledge and experience to prepare for and prevail in these types of cases," said Jeffery M. Leving, founder and president of the firm.

Leving will talk about the case, modified for broadcast, on the Dads' Rights Legal Hour, 9-10 a.m. CDT on Saturday, July 11, on Power 92.3 FM in Chicago.

The never-married father and mother live separately, and there's a court-ordered allocation of shared parenting time in place for their two daughters. But the alleged domestic violence, the firm contended, warranted a change in the parenting time order.

The Leving legal team put this case together – the domestic violence allegation and the assertion that the girls are happy and well-adjusted with dad and have expressed fear of the mother, recognizing that even a strong, well-prepared case is never a sure thing.

"We know what we're up against, even when it appears we have the facts and the law on our side. Every day, we have to fight to make sure the court knows that this day must not be the day that children are put at risk," Leving said.

The Leving team went to court, presented the case, argued the facts and the law, and won. The judge's order was decidedly in the father's favor: The court gave dad exclusive residential possession of the children and banned the mother from taking them.

"This is an important, safety-saving victory for the kids, as I see it, and a big relief for dad," Leving said.
