Cleveland, Jul 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Playwright, Entrepreneur, Model, Author and Game-changer, Stella Hall defines what being a Boss is really all about by unapologetically writing her own rules and marching to the beat of her own drum! She is passionate about seeing her dreams and aspirations come to fruition, and after being in the entertainment industry for over 20 years she's come to realize that if you want to be truly successful, it will be necessary for you to chart your own course—and sometimes, bring your own seat.

This omni-talent, is not waiting for anyone to offer her a seat at the (proverbial) table—because this time around she's bringing her own.

Stella has been in the industry long enough to see the ebbs and flows of how show business works. And her uncanny work ethic, dogged determination, and insatiable drive have opened many doors for her over the years. But now she stands at the precipice of immeasurable success, and she's ready to kick the door wide open—stilettos and all! Ms. Hall means business. She's focused, ready, and poised for such a time as this. "I've been working hard for this moment all of my life and now I truly believe that it's my time to shine, said Stella."

Stella is a woman of strength and substance. Her works showcase how women, especially black women, can change their destiny through sheer determination, strength and wisdom. She is her own hero. Previously, she worked with the internationally known dancing duo Les Twins, Laurent Nicolas and Larry Nicolas Bourgeois-- along with Yanis Marshall, who has a talent for making each dance step a beautiful form of art, of life, of reality. Stella and Yanis are two of the most talented individuals who make each experience worth remembering.

Stella's writing has appeared in Ebony and Today's Black Woman among other publications, and she's the founder and CEO of Blacpanther Publications, dedicated to representing strong black female characters. In her books, Stella gives readers a chilling, fast-paced read they won't forget. She loves placing female protagonists in dangerous, real-life situations where their smarts and instincts are put to the test.

In Stella's novel, Swing Lowe Sweet Chariote, protagonist Chariote Lowe, a recent high school graduate from inner-city Cleveland witnesses the tragic murder of her best friend, and so begins her slow descent into becoming a cold-blooded killer. Matching the novel's intensity and heightened emotion, the popular indie movie after the book is described by D. Ryan Mowery, Ryan's Reviews as "A heavy hard-hitting urban drama that packs a large emotional impact." Produced by HWIC FilmWorks, the popular indie film aired at five film festivals and made Official Selection for the Greater Cleveland Urban Film Festival, 2013.

You can find Swing Lowe Sweet Chariote, the movie on Amazon Prime or on YouTube. Special appearances by Chuck D of Public Enemy, Tony King (The Godfather, The Toy, Sparkle), Ray Jr. (The Game Ain't For Everybody), Peter Lawson Jones (Alex Cross, Made In Cleveland).

Joe, Stella's riveting novel, is another page-turner. It will consume you in such a way that once you are done reading it, you will want more. She knows how to capture your heart, your attention and your emotions. It is a book you can relate to and deserves a top spot on your bookshelf. During the pandemic, Stella has been keeping busy by writing a brand new novel, Friends and Strangers, which is set to be released this Fall! Friends and Strangers is already receiving critically-acclaimed reviews—and has also received an endorsement from the legendary, GRAMMY Award-winner Chaka Kahn, one of the world's most gifted and celebrated musicians, with a rich musical legacy.
