

Cardi B. Inspiring Breakout Artists to Write During Pandemic

Tim Trilioni's "Corona Virus" Song Gaining Traction During Lockdown

New York City, Aug 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - In the middle of March 2020, Cardi B's live broadcast of her speaking candidly about the deadly Coronavirus pandemic got the attention of a Brooklyn producer Imarkkeyz who remixed the song and set the internet ablaze. Since that time the US public and other fans around the world of both artists have been jamming to the upbeat remix. Putting music to a pandemic is nothing new but the outcomes surely speak for itself. Inspired by the topic and want to bring life to these gloomy times Singer and Mental Health activist Tim Trilioni has done it again. His latest song titled "Corona Virus" is making waves around the world.

This budding musician not only sings about the pandemic but he does it intentionally and melodically, using metaphors for love and heartbreak and the harsh nature of the novel coronavirus disease. Coronavirus has devastated populations from Italy, China, UK, SA, and the United States. When asked about his intent in the song he stated, "I was just trying to make good music for people to vibe to during this lockdown and now extended lockdown. Many people have confided in me that they are going through one of the most depressing times they could recall in history. I just felt an inclination to write and sing. Two passions of mine." Tim Trilioni was right about his inclination. With the growing attention and notoriety for his latest song Corona Virus, it's no wonder he is being bombarded by industry specs to jump in on working with this talented vocalist. When asked about his goals Tim Trilioni asserted, "my biggest goal is to make music that makes people feel good. It's a healing thing."

Tim Trilioni's soulful ballads and dark tones brings to mind Opera meets R and B. The singer's unique voice is catching the attention of film producers around the world that are seeking to use his music for their projects. When asked what we can expect from him in the near future Trilioni stated "I will be dropping my LP Black Gold Rush on 9-10-20, please expect great things to come most high willing." The confident singer went on to say, "you can also expect two animated series that will be out later this month potentially August 15th where I will be doing voiceovers for several crazy and interesting characters."

With so many projects coming down the pike and a growing fanbase for this artist, we anticipate nothing but the best for this charming and talented artist!
