

Demi Dahmer will release a hit single in promotion for his upcoming Album Psychic Vampire

New York City, Aug 11, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - The rising Shock rock artist Demi Dahmer is planning to release a hit single with composer David Dexter. This will be released before the album. Psychic Vampire set to hit shelves on Oct. 31, his 1st studio album. Coinciding with the announcement is a music video that Demi will release in the coming weeks, which is a promotional video. ", it seems like just yesterday, making the title and track with Dexter" began Demi, who started recording the album during the coronavirus pandemic.

"This will be recorded to its completion without anyone hearing except Dexter and I until it is finished," the king of dirt continued. "There is most definitely two sides like a coin in the stories on this album. But just like a story or a poem where the story ends and the person sails off, it's up to the listener to decide how it all ends."

Demi is developing the unifying theme of the record and has incorporated some of his life events into the album. "This concept album is the broken mirror I built for the listener - its for them to piece together like a puzzle. There are so many dimensions. But in the soul and your mind's eye, the worst is always the mirrors. Shards and slivers of glass. I had ghosts haunting me when I wrote some of these lyrics. I share I've heard a spirit of a girl speak into the mic one night. ," Demi confessed.

We don't know the name or the exact date of the promotional video Demi will be releasing. All we can do is keep an ear out and wait.
