Hong Kong, Aug 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Building on the success of the first global gathering in May 2020, which attracted 170 top-level speakers, 60+ professional investors and 1,500 attendees, Digital Week Online will be expanding to an even bigger community of innovators and entrepreneurs on 9th-16th October; “Keeping the tech world united - changing the future! Online. For everyone.”

We kick off the event with the “The Babylon Project”, an intense three-day (9-11th October) virtual blockchain hackathon that will democratize access to global innovation.

On Oct 12th, we hold the “Global Blockchain Day” where top experts will tackle topics such as DeFi, central bank digital currencies, blockchain for corporates, institutional investments, and mining.

All participants then take a “virtual networking break” on Oct 13th by joining one of the best intuitive AI-powered business matching platforms.

Innovation Days run Oct 14-16th and are broken down by region for local tech gurus, mentors, and investment community leaders to engage audiences on seven key tracks:

- Covid19 and its impact on economies
- Fintech
- Privacy & Cyber Security
- Digital Marketing
- Impact & Sustainability

- Corporate Innovation
- Gaming & Entertainment

Each track will be co-hosted by a reputable organization with deep expertise in that space. For example, the Privacy & Cyber Security track will be co-hosted by PrivacyRules (www.privacyrules.com) which unites law firms and cybersecurity companies across 50 countries.

Keeping faithful to our core community, Digital Week Online will also host a start-up competition and pitch sessions, where budding entrepreneurs will get feedback from top-investors and experts. Given the current global pandemic, we have waived the fees to participate.

Sponsorship packages are available with benefits that include brand exposure, access to a unique audience of potential partners and customers, keynotes and sponsors introduction, analytics, virtual booths as well as inbound and outbound meetings. The main sponsors of our past events include Sensorium VR, OSL, Bitforex and Fio.One.
