

Every Dj is not a Scratch Master? Why is Dj Popo Different?

Every Party Needs Dj PoPo to Curate he Vibes.

Atlanta, Aug 18, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Purveyor of deep, infectious dance grooves and a feel-good atmosphere. That's how most describe Dj Popo. Never afraid to go too deep, his emotive musical selections are his own therapy. Having grown up on a combination of Hip Hop, Caribbean, Reggaeton, R&B, and more PoPo is not deemed a scratch master for no reason. Popo's set over time became infused with his own love for both hip-hop and hard-hitting mixes and blends. Today, this translates into sets where he picks apart and infuses together all the pieces of this music that he loves best: beautiful synth work, ethereal backdrops, brooding basslines, and occasional vocal hooks... all on top of a pronounced foot-shuffling sounds. There's has not been a day that music hasn't dominated Popo's daily life.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, with a Panamanian background, you know the catalog of such Dj would be eclectic in range and genres. Many may not know that from a toddler Dj Popo was spinning records. Things started with his Dad giving him a rotation of music to learn. Learning the perfect breaks in records started with Alicia Myers and Mary J. Not knowing yet, what the records meant, he found out at a young age to blend, scratch and mix at a very young age. There's no limit to what you may end up jamming out to when at a Popo party. He will take the most old school impossible record and mix it with a new school track, no other Dj would try. Can thank the different cultures that makeup Dj Popo. Spending his young life all the way up to current, diverse music will keep you wanting to only attend Dj Popo's parties. Every Dj has its own style. Being well versed in music from your parent's music, all the way up to the current top charters, you can hear him playing on the 957 Jamz Radio (Alabama).

A very active member of the music scene, Popo is no stranger to the ups-and-downs of a small-town music scene. Though he loves playing in nightclubs, patios and special events, his love for music goes beyond the spectrum of mixing tunes. As a drummer, Dj, and promoter, he has found plenty of ways to express himself musically. He also likes to post original content with original mixes on social media, @Djpopo01 - here the Scratch Master is dedicated to helping others become better familiar with his skills. You can see and hear his passion, through each mix.

For Popo, it's all about mood and a deep, hypnotic groove... playing those tracks that get you tapping your feet and nodding your head without you realizing it, regardless of genre, tempo, style, or release date.
