Sunish Chabba, Creative Director at Guru Playing Card Company (GPCC), Australia is leading this project with complete dedication and passion. He is an avid playing cards enthusiast and a member of the 52 Plus Joker Club. Chabba has spent hundreds of hours in closely examining Hieronymus Bosch's seminal works and studying intricate details in these masterpieces. After exhaustive inspection spanning to over a year, he was able to present the artwork in the form of collectible playing cards deck and puzzle.

The Bosch Collector's edition playing cards deck is an art in itself. The polyptych puzzle playing cards is an ode to the legacy of Hieronymus Bosch. Each card is an individual piece of art while placing the 54 cards together transforms these individual parts into a single larger masterpiece. Considering the rarity of Bosch's works, this collectible is a must-have item for the lovers of art. In the words of one of the backers of this project at Kickstarter: "This is the one painter that I would LOVE to own an original painting from!! Alas, so few known examples of his work exist, that I would have to have the money of a Russian oligarch IF one would ever come up for sale! So instead I will have to settle for this great looking deck of cards!"

GPCC invites interested buyers to pledge today at Kickstarter to receive exclusive rewards and discounts. The 54-piece Bosch Puzzle Playing Cards is printed by Legends Playing Card Company on Classic Finish with Performance Coating. The playing cards are Poker sized (3.5" X 2.5") and come with an elegant tuck box with strategic embossing done on the artwork & matte soft-touch stock. In addition to this, the company has announced to offer an exclusive 55th card only available to the backers of this project on Kickstarter. The painting on this card is inspired by one of the most renowned works by MC Escher, the Escherian Stairwell, but adds Hieronymus Bosch's special touch to it, thus making it an ode to both masters.

Along with a set of playing cards that also serve as a puzzle to have fun with friends and family, the company has also announced a Collector's Uncut Sheet. The limited-edition uncut sheets will be ready to frame to add more charm to the buyer's walls.
