

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Damon Korb speaking on "Raising an Organized Child"

Virtual 60th Birthday Event

Palo Alto, Aug 6, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - AchieveKids schools, which provide special education and mental health services to students between the ages of 5 and 22 will present Dr. Damon Korb, author of Raising an Organized Child as the keynote speaker at their 60th Birthday Virtual Event, taking place on Zoom, Thursday, August 13, 2020. Dr. Korb will speak at 7:00 pm followed by a live Q&A session at 7:30 pm.

Register for the event here: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/achievekids-keynote-speaker-tickets-115809765125>

Damon

Dr. Korb Md, FAAP., is one of the country's leading developmental/behavioral pediatricians, founder and director of the Center for Developing Minds (and dad to five children!) Dr. Korb is also an adjunct clinical professor at Stanford University Medical Center. He is based in Los Gatos, CA. His best-selling book is the modern guide of "thinking organized" or "executive function" - Raising an Organized Child: 5 Steps to Boost Independence, Ease Frustration, and Promote Confidence (American Academy of Pediatrics, 2019). Dr. Korb has been featured and trending on NPR "Here & Now", The Today Show with Hoda & Jenna, Parents Magazine, Hallmark Home & Family, The Washington Post, The New York Times, SiriusXM's Doctor Radio, Good Housekeeping, OprahMag .com, and many other news outlets.

Media Contact

AchieveKids

kklarreich@achievekids.org

16502135286

3860 Middlefield Rd.

Source : AchieveKids

See on IssueWire