Get to know Dentist Dr. Maqsood A. Chaudhry, who serves patients in Virginia.

New York City, Aug 20, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Chaudhry has been a practicing dentist in Virginia for over two decades. After graduating with his Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS) degree from West Virginia University School of Dentistry, he began a private practice - Grove Dental Clinic - in Falls Church, Virginia.

Grove Dental Clinic has a history of 23 years providing the best treatment to thousands of patients of all ages in the field of general and advanced dentistry with state-of-the-art technology. Dr. Chaudhry and his staff create lifelong relationships with patients and their families and work to ensure that they receive treatments in a comfortable and relaxed environment. They are trained in advanced dental procedures and techniques so that patients can benefit from the latest dental care.

Professionally, Dr. Chaudhry also tends to patients' dental needs at Brookfield Dental Associates in Springfield, Virginia. Utilizing the latest technology to provide a high-quality dental experience, he and the staff of Springfield dentists offer quality services for patients of all ages, from a child's first visit to treating adults with Invisalign. They are dedicated to quality care and stand by their work, whether a patient is in need of endodontic, cosmetic, or general dental services.

In the year 2000, Dr. Chaudhry attended a Dental Implant Seminar, sponsored by the American Academy of Implant Dentistry, at Howard University and completed a one-year comprehensive training in oral implantology. He also completed courses with The United States Institute of Implant Dentistry and has since been a certified member of The International Congress of Oral Implantologists and the American College of Oral Implantology since 2001.

In 2010, he completed a Patterson Dental comprehensive training course in CEREC CAD-CAM, a revolutionary technology that can fabricate crowns and restorations with computer guided precision. Prior to this, he studied orthodontics and was recognized by The United States Dental Institute for completion of all Orthodontic Seminars and Lectures in 1994.

To stay up to date on the latest advancements in the field of dentistry, Dr. Chaudhry remains a member of the American Dental Association, the Virginia Dental Association, the Northern Virginia Dental Association, the American Association for Functional Orthodontics, the Appliance Therapy Practitioners Association, the Academy of General Dentistry, the National Society of Dental Practitioners, the McLean Islamic Center (Co-Founder & Board Member), Unity Production Foundation (Pioneer Member), Rotary Club of Mclean, the International Center of Tolerance of Respect and Understanding (Board Member), and the Paul Harris Club (Fellow).

From his humble beginnings, he has expanded his services by opening several offices in the DMV area, with most open Monday through Saturday. He is a community activist supporting many local and national charities along with serving on the board of a non-profit free health clinic in Virginia.

Dentistry, also known as Dental and Oral Medicine, is a branch of medicine that consists of the study, diagnosis, prevention, and treatment of diseases, disorders, and conditions of the oral cavity. Dentists diagnose and treat dental issues and help patients develop better oral hygiene regimens. They clean teeth, correct bite issues, perform surgeries and extractions and perform other duties to ensure that the teeth and mouth are healthy.

A certified provider of Invisalign and Clear Correct, Dr. Chaudhry is a recipient of the Invisalign Innovator Award, awarded by Align Technologies in 2003. He is also recognized as a Premier Provider by Invisalign in 2007, 2008, and 2009.

Among the many languages, he speaks include English, Arabic, Hindi, Urdu, and Punjabi.
