Long awaited release of John C Botdorf' Third Book on managing difficult DIVA relationships

Reno, NV-Sky cast Media, LLC is proud to announce one of the most provocative, insightful and humorous books written on how to obtain happiness and tranquillity in a challenging relationship. A modern technology visionary and serial Entrepreneur, John C Botdorf combines over 35 years of practical knowledge and wisdom on how to court, date, and even marry the girl of your dreams, who may just be high maintenance. While the book is applicable to anyone in any type of relationship, it is centered on Alpha Males who seem to crave (and get) anything they want out of life. However, if they are courting a person who is also quite adept at winning, they are in for a challenge on every level.

What happens when two attractive and successful people, use to winning, have to compromise?

What others are saying!
