"Quality Time" a song produced and written by artist Jacques Johnson

Atlanta, Aug 15, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - A song produced and written by artist, Jacques Johnson has hit provided a glimpse of peace and joy to listeners around the globe. The #qualitytimechallenge has received videos on tik tok and Facebook from fans in the US, Croatia, Germany, Philippines, Mexico, Africa and more. When you hear lyrics like, "you don't need no shoes" and "Turn off the news" you automatically start to feel comfortable.

Jacques Johnson chose to also give listeners a hint of his political view by using the lyrics "that is not my POTUS". Apparently, there are many people who agree with the rapper, because the homemade video views have gone viral.

Jacques Johnson will be starring in his own television series this fall called Who Is Jacques Johnson? The series is reality look at Jacques' life, so viewers should wonder if they will see more about his non-support of Trump.

How do fans feel about artists who take a stance against the current POTUS? Does his lyrics show a lack of pride for leadership or should fans focus on his free speech? Or maybe, fans should just focus on what the song is about, "Quality Time" with Family and friends.
