

Utah Hip hop Artist CMR CA$Hndrx screams for attention as he shatters all ceilings with his groundbreaking voice

Utah Hip hop Artist CMR CA$Hndrx happens to be the next big thing in hip-hop with an extraordinary style and passion for hip-hop rare to spot in recent times.

Salt Lake City, Aug 4, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Hip-hop has shifted to a level where an artist has to be different from his musical peers to raise high on the charts. Drifting away from the mediocre music curators by introducing his unique original sound, artist CMR CA$Hndrx has crashed all boundaries to develop his line of music. The Utah Hip hop Artist raps on a genuine level and establishes a significant connection with his listeners. Detailing every minute detail in his songwriting, the artist shines bright with his effortless execution which he does in his melodic rap voice to lay bare his prominent artistry. For those unfamiliar with his name, listening to his songs for once will give them enough reasons to listen to him relentlessly.

His weighty voice, varied tune modulations, and the punch lines sound incredibly refreshing as the rapper explores new experimental sounds to leave the listener in splits. Featuring the classic hip-hop sound in all his tracks, the rapper has released few upbeat soundscapes that sound like a rare combination of his distinctive qualities and contemporary freestyle hip-hop. The storyline is catchy and very much relatable to daily life. Few examples of such songs are 'Ca$h Talk', 'No Glove No Love', 'CMR-"RFC"', and 'CMR - Sex.Drugs.Rock & Roll'. The songs are upbeat, fun, engaging, and [perfect to fit in the mainstream. The artist's beaming energy and infectious vocals maintain a standard quality to strike a chord with the audience.

Coming from Salt Lake City, CMR CA$Hndrx considers himself as a bad influence because he feels that good persons die first. His out-of-the-box thoughts and unlimited store of energy is an added plus point that makes his songs so popular amongst the millennial. The independent artist is here to showcase his greatness and nurtures a party vibe mixed with a gangster attitude. The deadly yet effective combination is something that hip-hop truly favors. Listen to him on Soundcloud and follow him on Facebook for details.
