

Wen-Jo “Walter” Chiang, Founder of CP&Y Passes Away and Leaves Behind a Rich Legacy

“It is important to motivate our young minds and encourage them to work hard, engage in the community, and have confidence in their life ”

Wen-Jo “Walter”

Chiang

1943 - 2020

Dallas, Aug 12, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - CP&Y confirmed the passing of the firm’s Founder, Board Member, and friend, Wen-Jo “Walter” Chiang. As a prominent leader in the environmental and civil engineering industry, Walter enjoyed a long and distinguished 50 year engineering career filled with countless accolades and awards. Walter passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on August 7th, 2020.

His lifelong dream of being a Partner for a Better Quality of Life is rooted in the firm’s tagline and is the foundation of an extraordinary man who devoted himself to the improvement of environmental services, civil engineering initiatives, the education of future generations of engineering students, and always exhibiting a passion for the well-being of all CP&Y employees throughout his distinguished career.

For those wanting to share remembrances and thoughts, please email: rememberingwalter@cpyi.com

Walter Chiang's Legacy

Media Contact

CP&Y, Inc.

awest@cpyi.com

1820 Regal Row, Suite 200, Dallas, TX

Source : CP&Y, Inc.

See on IssueWire