

Westcoast rapper Goddi returns from darkness to light with his inspirational musical works

Los Angeles, Aug 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - An artist, coming out of societal prejudices, harsh realities of life, and adverse situations, blesses the musical timeline with his fascinating musicianship – the Westcoast rapper Goddi is one such artist who has stunned the global audiences with his amazing musical work. Through the brand-new EP, titled Psalm 23:4, he has explained the difficulties that many black men are subjected to during their young age. With the dark yet beautiful presentation of this EP, the talented artist has portrayed the miserable lives of young men and women of Watts and Compton, Los Angeles, where they have no choice but to join gangs for protection. A city where education is scarce, funds are low, and the officials have given up, the kids are forced to do such work in order to survive.

Goddi is also one of those people of the city, who had to go through trials and tribulations. He had to spend a lot of time in gangs of the city and also take care of 2 children while being completely homeless; all he ever wanted was to at least give a home to his children. Through his musical work, he wants to inspire others who have nothing to look forward to. He has always had a passion for music and now, he is using this passion to introduce something unique and impactful to the global audience. He only wants to help his community in its overall growth and in coming out of the miseries of life. And, it can be said that he is just getting started to inspire people with his music.

The EP 'Psalm 23:4' brings his life events to the forefront, which has captivated the audience, due to its realness and connectivity. The death certificate on the cover art signifies the death of his old self, at that time also known as YG Gotti. It reflects the time when he was caged in the non-ending cycle of turmoil and despair of violence. It also portrays the past life of Goddi, when his hate and jealousy had almost cost him his life. Created under an award-winning record label and entertainment group, FAM Entertainment, this EP is a stunning collection of intimate lyricism and musical magnificence, which has certainly spellbound the listeners. The rap verses are simply stunning and have created a ripple of awesomeness across the music industry. Listen to the absolutely delightful arrangement of this EP on Spotify and all other major platforms. Also, follow him on his social media platforms for more updates.
