

Bhoothnath Director Vivek Sharma now Directs a Film Based on 1975 Emergency

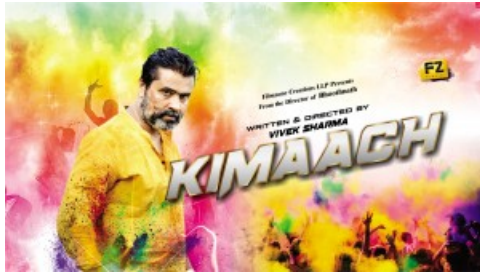

Mumbai, Sep 6, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - We all are aware of the film "Bhoothnath" featuring Amitabh Bachchan which was a massive Hit. Now Bhoothnath director Vivek Sharma comes forward with a Hard-Hitting film on 1975 Emergency titled "KIMAACH".

The story "KIMAACH" is based on the struggle of Muslim Couple during the times of 1975 - 1976 Emergency.

On this Vivek Sharma replies "We will be also recreating that era of 1975. Its a good expensive Big Budgeted film and This will be made in two languages -Hindi and Tamil. Entire Shooting will be held in the state of Uttar Pradesh and we might be revealing the Hidden places too in Uttar Pradesh as a part of 'Incredible India'."

The biggest Surprise factor is that Big Tamil star has been roped in, Name of the star will be revealed as the project progresses. Well, this sounds a bit Prestigious and Hard-Hitting Cinema isn't it?

The film will be Produced by Filmzone and Directed by Vivek Sharma. Shooting of Kimaach to go on shooting floors soon and can't wait to know the Truth of '1975 Emergency'.
