

Earthdance Peace Festivals Go Virtual September 19 "Vision 2020 Co-Manifestival"

Synchronized Prayer for Peace - Charity Benefit Multiple Global Peace and Music Livestream Productions

San Francisco, Sep 16, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Earthdance International has announced its 24th annual peace, music and dance festivals will take place online next Saturday, September 19. Vision 2020 Co-Manifestival programs from around the world will stream on the Earthdance.TV website and elsewhere.

The Prayer for Peace livestream airs from 2 pm to 9 pm PDT. This program begins with chanting by Buddhist Monks of Bhutan, followed by a George Mason University webinar panel discussion, Achieving Peace Through Music produced by the International Institute for Peace through Tourism, the Tourist Council of Bhutan and academic collaborators.

At 4 pm PST, all participants gather worldwide for the Synchronized Prayer for Peace, a single synchronized moment of intention accompanied by a guided meditation by sound healer/musician Divasonic, with compelling visuals by Michael Strauss. Next, singer-songwriter Fantuzzi hosts a number of musical artists and offers his own uplifting performance.

The day ends with an interactive livestreamed Glow Tribe Dance Party. People from around the world, registered through Earthdance.TV, may dance together and join indirectly on Zoom. Funds raised will benefit Earthdance International and other charities.

This Prayer for Peace program is just one of five scheduled livestreams. Featured international events include Gaudi, headlining from London, electronic DJs from Uganda, an Xtended Reality Multiverse experience from Asheville, North Carolina and performances from the online RadioCave communities. Schedules and details will be updated and available on Earthdance.TV.

About Earthdance

Since 1997, in alignment with the United Nations' September 21 International Day of Peace, Earthdance has brought together tens of thousands in 80 countries celebrating and empowering peace, social justice and sustainability. Coordinated by the Earthdance International 5013c non-profit, all events contribute to local charities and participate in the synchronized Prayer for Peace moment. This year Earthdance events serve charities including the Cherokee Preservation Trust, the Trussell Trust, the Epilepsy Association of Central Florida, and more.

Vision 2020 sponsors include Ganja Goddess, Sunwarrior, Amma Healing, Synergetic Press, The International Institute for Peace Through Tourism, Tourism Council of Bhutan, George Mason University – Center for World Religions, Diplomacy & Conflict Resolution, Hamilton College and Toda Peace Institute, Spice Pharm and Sol Solutions.
