

Exclusive Translation, Proofreading and Editing Services for Hindi Bloggers by Transmart India Language Services

First of a kind service in the market dedicated to Bloggers

New Delhi, Sep 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Due to COVID-19 and growing work from home culture, a lot of people are switching to digital platforms for means of earning. And along with Digital Marketing, Blogging has also attracted a lot of people from diverse industries and different background.

To tap this business opportunity, Transmart India Language Services today launched exclusive Editing and Proofreading services for Hindi Bloggers. Company Director Ms. Priti said, "Hindi blogging and content development has gained much more popularity in the past few years. As Google disclosed last year, out of 10 new online users, 9 are from local/regional languages. Today more than 20% of searches are in the Hindi Language."

"It's true that people from various backgrounds have made their presence felt in the field of Hindi content development and blogging. They are writing good content but as many of them are not a literary person or with no Hindi literature background, due to small grammatical and spelling/typing errors their good to excellent contents gets spotted. This is how we got an idea to support them," she added.

According to Ms. Priti, service charges will be very reasonable and it will be delivered by a team of experts. At present company has started this project with LEARN EARN GUIDE (www.learnearnguide.com) and HINDINFONET (www.hindinfo.net).

"Along with these exclusive services, regular Content Translation services are also available for Bloggers, publishers/content developers who want their English or any other language content to be translated into Hindi, She concluded."
