

FilmFlex Films an ALL NEW Film Production Company Introducing Revolutionary Acting & Writing Classes

We are here to make young filmmakers better in their field.

Norcross, Sep 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - FilmFlex Films is announcing the grand opening of their All New Film Production Company. FilmFlex Films is introducing revolutionary Acting and Writing classes starting on December 28, 2020. Abigail “Joanna” Simpson Chief Executive Officer and Asia Mason Vice President of FilmFlex Films are two New York natives that came to Atlanta with goals and dreams to take over the film industry. These two women are not new to the industry; they collectively have over 10 years of experience in the Film Industry.

FilmFlex Films focus is on making captivating films but also help young filmmakers explore their talent. The “Pilot for Success” and “Characters Development” writing course are available both online and in the office, practicing social distancing. Whether a student is a beginner writer or just needs to sharpen their craft, the classes will provide the tools needed to empower their writing. Writing characters can be difficult for some but not to worry students can learn through the use of archetypes and other techniques with the classes they offer. For our actors, who are interested in perfecting their craft, they offer an Improv Acting class that is fun and innovative. So Actors can get ready to be on set!

FilmFlex Films is built on the foundation of the three H's, Honest, Hungry, and Humble. Our team is created with hungry inspiring filmmakers. FilmFlex Films strives to make honest connections while keeping up with the hungry demands of filmmaking. In term remaining humble through the success.

“The industry will always change but FilmFlex Films will always remain Honest, Hungry and Humble” - CEO
