

Next Entrepreneur to Watch - Midwest News

Cincinnati, Sep 29, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Our next pick for businesswomen to watch is Entrepreneur/Influencer/Actress, Mari Aldrich Beckert. As an entrepreneur first, she quickly grew her first company, LocoMovement, to a profitable business within the first month. LocoMovement aims at helping grow small to medium-sized companies and startups, and Mari is the undercover liaison behind the success of many companies nationwide.

Never being one to sit still, she has recently expanded into the acting and modeling world amassing over 30,000 followers on instagram (@marinotsorry) and has done several ads and commercials.

When asked about her key to success, Mari has stated "Shoot for the moon to land on the stars. Having your dreams come true is not easy, but it's worth it. There's going to be doors shut on you in the beginning, and that's when you have to get creative and create your own door".
