The thought which started as a small family business in 2005, has now come of age to become a government of India recognized, ethically responsible and sustainable apparel manufacturing company that still believes in its roots. The movement towards sustainability has now gained pace and we as a company, are proud to be a part of it.

Our Mission

To ethically manufacture good quality, sustainable apparel for our customers within the agreed timelines and price points.

About Us

Organic and More, a registered brand under the flagship Company Net Paradigm India Pvt. Ltd. is one of the top Indian apparel factories in Asia. With a simple idea of creating awareness among the people about the benefits of a greener lifestyle in terms of what they wear, we have continued to evolve and establish ourselves as a brand that deals in 100% certified organic cotton garments manufacturing.

Since 2005 our core belief stands on delivering the best quality organic cotton derived from a certified organic cotton farm that is devoid of any kind of pesticides and chemical insecticides, harmful dyeing or printing agents, etc.

Nestled in the heart of Noida, Uttar Pradesh, India, we export organic cotton garments and accessories all across the globe. With sound experience and a customer-oriented approach, we have managed to establish long-standing associations with quality customers. Our client pool is geo-located in North America, Continental Europe, U.K, Australia, and New Zealand.

Organic cotton is a more eco-conscious alternative to old textile materials used everywhere. We use organic cotton which is highly sustainable, and bamboo which is widely known for its antifungal and antibacterial properties. Thus forming a perfect choice for the soft infant garments.

We strive to outperform in customer-delivery and our customers are our top priority. We are certified under the Global Organic Textile Standards (GOTS) and have also garnered appreciation and approval by the Supplier Ethical Data Exchange (SEDEX).

Our manufacturing capability counts the likes of garments for infants, toddlers, children(s), young adults and moms, lifestyle-related apparel made in knitted and woven fabrics. Also forming a part of our product manufacturing portfolio are a wide range of soft toys, flat knit sweaters, and baby bedding and women apparel.

As a processes oriented company, with high value for quality, and an experienced team, we ensure customer satisfaction in terms of timeliness, quality, and pricing.
