

Prodigal Cat Returns Home- Joan Romney Groves

A cat's greatest challenge—finding his home.

Orem, Sep 22, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - UT—At some point, we've all wandered far from home to search for thrilling adventures, discover new places, meet new faces, escape from the familiar, or chase the unknown. However, wherever our feet take us, be it somewhere good or bad, our hearts will always yearn for home; and when the longing intensifies, we will find our way back—no matter how far away we are.

Where is My Home? by Joan Romney Groves is an endearing story of a cat named Sonic, who, due to his feisty attitude, is not suited for domesticity. Brought to a barn to live with other animals, Sonic realized that nothing could ever compare to home, thus he began his adventure homeward bound. After traveling 30 miles through every season of the year, he finally returns home.

Where is My Home? received the Recommended Seal from the US Review of Books and Pacific Book Review Star for Excellent Merit. Recently, the book was the 2020 Winner of Children's Books for 6 and Older by Pacific Book Reviews.

Erica Diamond from the Pacific Book Reviews shares her praise for the book: "Complete with a collection of amazingly detailed illustrations, Where Is My Home? is a book destined to become a favorite among children growing up. A combination of morals, adventures, and a maternal overtone of love, every child will be captivated by this book..."

Joan Romney Groves, aside from being a mother of six and grandmother of 28, has 23 years of experience working as an elementary school counselor and has encountered innumerable children with varying personalities. Gifted with an understanding mind and nurtured by her profession, her mission to teach children the value of empathy has developed. She hopes that her stories will navigate the young generation towards positive character development.
