He is the CEO of New Leaf Chiropractic in Miami, Florida. As such, his goal is to help families achieve their God-given optimal health and potential, thereby allowing them to reach their sole purpose in life.

“We are a state-of-the-art healthcare facility that focuses on finding the root cause of your health concerns and not merely masking them with unnecessary pills, drugs, and surgeries. We understand that health is your greatest asset and our goal is to help you and your family achieve and maintain the healthy and abundant life you were created for. We are your Miami chiropractor, building healthier communities for generations to come” as stated on the website of New Leaf Chiropractic.

Having suffered from back pain at a young age, Dr. Rosado had his first experience with chiropractic care at 11 years old. Although his pain improved, it was not until he met a neurologically-based chiropractor that he realized the importance of chiropractic and a proper functioning nervous system. Having witnessed the amazing results with this specialty, it was not long before he began his journey to becoming neurologically-based chiropractic himself.

His passion led him to graduate with his Doctorate of Chiropractic(DC) degree with Honors from Life University in 2014. He also achieved Certified Advanced Proficiency in Torque Release Technique, which is one of the most researched chiropractic techniques available to date.

As a leader in the full spine club, Dr. Rosadno has been able to hone his skills in hands-on adjustments, making him proficient in the instrument as well as manual adjusting. He has taken several electives in pediatric diagnoses & adjusting, making him qualified to serve practice members of all ages.

Chiropractic is a form of alternative medicine that mainly deals with the diagnosis and treatment of mechanical disorders of the musculoskeletal system, especially the spine. A chiropractor uses spinal adjustments, manipulation, and other techniques to manage patients' health concerns, including neck pain and back pain. They aim to improve patients' functionality and quality of life by properly aligning the body's musculoskeletal structure and enabling the body to heal itself without the use of medication or surgery.

On a more personal note, Dr. Rosado met his wife, Dr. Sherry Rosado, DC, on their first day of orientation in graduate school. They felt led to one another to work towards God's purpose for their lives, together. They married on July 11th, 2014 and have been working alongside one another at New Leaf Chiropractic to achieve their passion for working with all the families in the South Florida community.
