Rahway, Sep 6, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - As another summer begins to winding down, SapphirEmerald Magazine ramps up with another edition chock full of inspiring, jaw-dropping stories of entrepreneurs, singers, songwriters, activists, and influencers. Catering to a diverse audience and supporting a diverse group of celebrities, you will be again inspired by the stories of struggle, the overwhelming obstacles, and journeys to success by our many powerful and up and coming celebrities.

In the September edition of SapphirEmerald Magazine, we share with the audience the struggles, triumphs, and passions of the many gems that we have uncovered.

Legendary PR Specialist Angelo Ellerbee graces the front cover as this month's Sapphire Story. Ellerbee, A no-nonsense child of God, shares his life's journey through dance, fashion, and modeling and making his way into the exciting world of publicity and media relations in the music industry. Angelo is affectionately known as the "Henry Higgins of Hip Hop" for his coaching and development of many outstanding artists and entertainers such as Mary J. Blige, Alicia Keys, DMX and Ginuwine. In the world of publicity, Angelo has worked with the best including Dionne Warwick, Shabba Ranks, and the late Whitney Houston and Micheal Jackson. To learn more about Mr. Ellerbee please visit his company Double XXposure Media Relations at www.dxxnyc.com.

As our Diamond Story, "Freestyling with Tray Bills", we learn how Tray uses his strong values instilled in him by his parents and family to influence and motivate his followers on social media in "The Bills Way". This multi-talented young entertainer shares his gift of positivity through various media including as a brand ambassador for several fashion lines as well as his inspiring music.

Shelly R. Clark takes readers "Beyond the Cracks" to a life of purpose as this month's Emerald Story. In her inspiring new book, she encourages readers to look at life through a glass half full perspective and to rely on God to show them their purpose and mission in life.

Featured as this month's Diamond Film & Glitter TV Story, Lorenzo Antonucci "looks through a new lens" delivering a powerful message in the upcoming controversial film "Cracka" in which he plays the role of a white supremacist who has been transported back to an era in which African Americans rule and whites are the slaves. Antonucci shares how his spicy Puerto Rican-Italian energy helps him to shape and mold his characters and has helped him to succeed in the challenging entertainment industry.

Larry Hirsch, the Hot Ruby Story of the month, offers powerful advice to young people to stay strong and focused as they continue the fight for justice and equality. As a life-long activist, Larry has made a powerful change in the lives of others and continues to do so in his role in politics.

The relentlessly enthusiastic Iesha Sekou, our Pearl Story of the month, works tirelessly as an advocate for young people to help change the trajectory of their lives, to inspire them to succeed, and to bring peace to her community.

Lastly, we go Behind the Scenes with Lady G, Gwendolyn Plater, as our Gold Story along her journey through music which has led to her career in promoting, marketing, and advertising for some of the biggest names in the industry.

At SapphirEmerald Magazine, we also want to recognize the amazing artistic ability of Ghana's former Next Top Super Model, Ama Amponsah.

The staff at SapphirEmerald Magazine would like to send a heartfelt thank you to all of our celebrities who have shared their inspiring stories of success and offered their words of wisdom to other aspiring singers, chefs, and business people.
