Get to know Radiologist Dr. Sean M. Mahan, who serves patients in Winter Springs, Florida.

New York City, Sep 22, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Mahan, a renowned radiologist, is the President of EliteRad Radiology Services, a national radiology practice in Winter Springs, Florida. He performs full time radiology duties, including the interpretation of MRI, CT, ultrasound and X-ray.

“EliteRAD partners with hospitals, medical groups, imaging centers, and physicians who require remote off-site interpretations of diagnostic imaging studies and completely fulfills these needs. EliteRAD implements its expertise to configure, install, and maintain the technology, hardware, and software to provide fast and accurate interpretations of the most advanced radiology examinations. Using ONLY U.S. trained and board certified physicians, EliteRAD will provide all the components you need to bring your imaging facility up-to-date with rapid and decisive reporting with state-of-the-art interpretations” as stated on the website.

In his current capacity, Dr. Mahan is working as a full-time radiologist for radiology centers across the state of Florida, as well as in other locations in the United States. He also lectures at the University of Central Florida, teaching radiology and clinical correlation to the doctors of physical therapy students; and serves as the team radiologist for the Orlando Predators.

He has served as a forensic radiology expert witness for both plaintiff and defense on numerous radiology cases that include medical malpractice, product liability, and personal injury. He is available for expert radiology consultation, review of studies, medical records and depositions, as well as providing deposition and trial testimony. His specialty areas include second opinion reporting.

Upon graduating with his medical degree from the Medical College of Virginia in 1991, Dr. Mahan went on to complete his internship and residency in diagnostic radiology at the same educational venue. He then completed a fellowship at Georgetown University Medical Center.

In 1996, he attained board certification in diagnostic radiology through the American Board of Radiology, which is a not-for-profit physician-led organization that oversees the certification and ongoing professional development of specialists in diagnostic radiology, interventional radiology, radiation oncology, and medical physics.

The doctor’s previous hospital affiliations include Orlando Regional Medical Center, where he served as the Director of the Radiology Department for multiple hospitals within that system. Dr. Mahan was also the Chairman of Central Florida Radiology and Drew Medical, the largest outpatient radiology practice in central Florida.

Radiology is a medical specialty that uses medical imaging to diagnose and treat diseases within the human body. Radiologists are medical doctors who specialize in diagnosing and treating injuries and diseases using medical imaging procedures, such as exams and tests, X-rays, computed tomography, magnetic resonance imaging, nuclear medicine, mammography, positron emission tomography, and ultrasound.
