

Shincheonji Church of Jesus held a Prayer Service to End COVID-19 with People from All Religions Worldwide

Melbourne, Sep 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - 19 September - Shincheonji Church of Jesus, the Temple of the Tabernacle of the Testimony held an online prayer service for all people of all religions worldwide, to pray for an end to COVID-19.

The online prayer service was held on the afternoon of September 16th for all domestic and international congregation members of Shincheonji Church. The church members came together virtually in their respective homes to pray to God for the end of COVID-19. All people from all religions were also invited to join the prayer service.

“During this pandemic when the entire world is in a state of uncertainty, Chairman Lee Man-hee suggested to have the prayer service as a time to pray for the virus to end all over the world and to repent for sins that we individually may have committed without realizing,” the church said in a statement. “The prayer service showed that the people of religion have taken initiative and are setting an example, especially during this time of crisis. It will also show the importance of surpassing religious boundaries to overcome the state of uncertainty together.”

A representative of Shincheonji Church of Jesus stated, “During this time when the whole world has been suffering from COVID-19, we, the people of faith, of different religions and denominations, will break the walls that have separated us and come together as one to pray so that we can overcome this time of crisis,” and “If we pray with one heart in our respective places, then it will move the heavens.”
