

The Chart-topping, Un-signed Star: Elena R.R. is Ready to Fly with her Unrivalled Electro/brass/pop Album - 'Sky High'!

Warmley, Sep 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Elena Roxy Rose is a Bristol based singer-songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, producer and author. Her style is unique, she programmes her own electro music and mixes it up with live brass. Her accentuated vocals combine musical theatre with pop.

Despite being unsigned, her debut single reached #14 in the dance pop charts UK.

Elena composes songs entire in her head, a rare talent shared by the likes of Mozart and Lady Gaga.

Some big names in the industry have taken notice of this dynamic artist. 7th Heaven were among several of the high profile remixes on her debut single 'Message in a Bottle' which graced the club scenes and is now available on all major music platforms. The legendary Audiofreaks also wrote and recorded a dance track with Roxy called 'Make Your Move' that had the crowds of Ibiza raising the roof.

Her latest music video 'Heads or Tails' is stirring up a storm on YouTube.

Her ebook titled 'Be Beautiful - A Unique Approach to Well-being and Weight Loss' (by Elena R.R.) is available to buy on Amazon.

Elena has decided to take the controversial route of not releasing her album through mainstream music outlets such as Spotify. Her argument being that these sites make the elite richer but do nothing to help the rising talents of today earn a living from their art. Her album is available to purchase directly and exclusively from her website. The not-for-profit singer says “proceeds will simply be reinvested to bring my fans more videos and more music”.
