Triangle Clique Records is Hosting the Worldwide Covid19 "Chiwanna" Shake It Dance Contest with a Huge Takeaway Prize!

Florida, Sep 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Record label Triangle Clique aka Triangle Clique Records is hosting the worldwide Covid19 "Chiwanna" shake it dance contest. The winner will be decided based on the total number of votes they receive. As Mike Hewitt, VP of sales and finance, described, "We are promoting a new single "Chiwanna" from Triangle Clique's first album release coming in October 2020 and wanted to find a way to do our part in helping families suffering due to the Covid19 pandemic. There are mothers right now without enough money to feed their babies. We could have budgeted the money elsewhere to promote this single but said let's make it fun and award the winner with a $1,000.00 dollar cash prize!"

Triangle Clique is an emerging record label based out of Orlando, FL. They have recently signed with Megabuzz Music Promotions an affiliate of Universal Music Group and have released 5 singles from the upcoming album "1000's of Tracks" Hip Hop Volume 1.

To enter the contest simply paste your video link dancing to "Chiwanna" and complete the form. By entering, you agree to the terms, restrictions and rules which can be seen at the official website of Triangle Clique Records. All contestants must be 18 and above and all video submissions should be 1 minute or less. The winner will be announced on the album release date of October 31, 2020.
