Miami, Sep 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - SportsEdTV's volleyball channel has been complemented by the addition of Canadian Charles Cardinal, long a respected authority in the world of long term athletic development.

"Charles Cardinal's service to Canadian National and Provincial Sports Organizations and his participation on Canada's Sport for Life Leadership Team is testimony to the value our audiences will get from his contributions to our FREE, unlimited, anytime, anywhere sports instruction portal," said Robert Mazzucchelli, Founder, Chairman and CMO, SportsEdTV.

Cardinal is the author of several publications including: Long Term Athlete Development Model; Yearly Training Competition and Recovery Plan; Optimal Sequencing of Training Activities and Technical-Tactical Training Related to Team Sports.

Charles Cardinal's contributions to the development of the sport of volleyball began when he was a physical education teacher at the College level in Outremont, Québec. He saw early success, with his first-team winning provincial and Canadian East Championships. In 1967, he co-founded the Fédération de Volleyball du Québec (FVBQ) in 1967 and he was the organization's first Technical Director from 1975-1977
