Get to know Board-Certified Adult Health Clinical Nurse Specialist, Amy L. Katsikas, who serves clients in O'Fallon, Illinois.

New York City, Oct 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Amy, a board-certified adult health clinical nurse specialist & expert cosmetic injector, is the owner & operator of Pure 111 Medical Aesthetics in O'Fallon, Illinois. She has an artist's eye for detail and looks for shadows, folds, and facial features that can be corrected with precise evaluation and restoration of the volume lost as part of the aging process.

“It’s incredibly rewarding to have the ability to make an instant change to someone who is unhappy with their appearance. Anyone can inject, but not everyone knows how to look at the face with its complexities and dimensions and inject fillers in a way that properly restores a youthful look” stated Amy.

Receiving both her Bachelor of Science in Nursing & her Master of Science in Nursing degrees from St. Louis University, she has extensive experience in multiple facets of medicine. These include neurosurgery, ENT, plastic surgery, as well as head and neck cancer. She founded Pure 111 because of her true passion....skin, anti-aging, and the artistry of aesthetics.

Since client safety is the number one priority, Amy prides herself on continually learning the latest advancements and techniques of aesthetic injecting. She performs an in-depth consultation with every client and offers immediate options as well as lays out a long-term plan to keep her clients looking beautiful, youthful, and natural.

To advance her efforts, she maintains membership with several professional organizations, including the International Society of Plastic and Aesthetic Nurses, the American Nurses Association, the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, the American Med Spa Association, and the American Society of Cosmetic Dermatology & Aesthetic Surgery. She also believes in attending frequent conferences to gain knowledge and advanced training in the latest techniques for her clients.

A Board-Certified Adult Health Clinical Nurse Specialist (ACNS-BC) is an advanced nursing practitioner who holds board certification and participates in the advanced care of adult patients in all aspects of care from assessment to treatment and management of outcomes.
