11th September 2020, Bangalore: St. Joseph's Institute of Management (www.sjim.edu.in) is a leading business school run by the Jesuits in the heart of Bangalore city. It is popular for its 2-year, full-time PGDM program which is recognized by AICTE as equivalent to MBA. As such, there is much rush to secure PGDM admission in Bangalore in this institute.

It was in 1884 that the St. Joseph's College was set up in Bangalore by Paris Foreign Mission fathers. It expanded to other branches like St. Joseph's College of Commerce, St. Joseph's Evening College and St. Joseph's College of Business and Administration (SJCBA). In 1937, all the ventures were handed over to the Jesuit fathers.

Thus, SJCBA was the only Jesuit business school in Bangalore. In 1996, the college got approval from the AICTE for a 2-year full-time PGDM program. In 2007, SJCBA got approval from AICTE for 2-year Executive PGDM and PGCM programs. In 2016, the name of the college was changed to St. Joseph Institute for Management (SJIM) with AICTE approval.

The PGDM program is the flagship program of the institute and is reputed to be one among best PGDM courses in Bangalore. Students can specialize in 2 out of 4 management specializations (Human Resources, Finance, Operations and Marketing).

The institute has state of the art, modern campus in Primrose road, near to MG Road that is at the heart of Bangalore's business district. Faculty is highly qualified with education from leading Indian and international institutions.

SJIM enjoys a great reputation because of many reasons. It is the first B-school in Karnataka, being set up in 1968. It is managed by the global Jesuit order of Catholic priests who also run some of the other top-level B-Schools in India like XLRI, XIMB and LIBA.

The institute has enabled a high placement record in the last 20 years such as 95% in 2016. It has been rated as an A++ institution by Business India. Faculty are alumni of IIM, IIT, IISC, BITS, NITIE as well as UK and US universities. Some of them have plenty of experience in the corporate sector and/ or hold doctoral degrees.

The course content and teaching-learning modalities are on par with those of IIM's. The institute features small classrooms for superior teacher-student interaction. It implements merit-based admission. There is also a facility for scholarships worth nearly Rs. 27 lakhs.

The dual specialization program makes it highly attractive for students. They also take part in many activities organized to help them develop organizational and managerial skills. SJIM offers financial support for gaining industry certifications. There are on-campus facilities for gyms and sports. Also available are excellent hostel facilities for boys and girls. Additionally, It has collaboration with foreign universities.
