Houston, Oct 4, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Houston's Duece Marly is gearing up for his latest project with the first single release, Leaky featuring Taylor Gang's, Young Deji and produced by fellow Stay Young Entertainment member Mike Devoe.

Walk out the closet, drippin I'm Leaky. Drip like a faucet, make it look easy, Deuce raps over a mid-tempo, melodic style Hip Hop track. Deji joined in for the second verse delivering a crooner style melody, giving the track a trapsoul feel.

Duece on working with Young Deji:

I am honored to have Deji on one of my records as I have been a fan of his music for quite some time. Seeing another Houstonian rise in the music industry in the way that he has is indeed inspiring. I hope to make more records with him.

Duece on his upcoming project:

My upcoming project is executive produced by my long-time friend and music colleague, Mike Devoe. Mike and I have been making music for several years now, so we mesh very well in the studio as well as on stage. The project will show just how well we work together as well as show a more personal side of me that my fans have yet to see.

'Leaky' will be available on all streaming platforms October 9th, 2020. In the meantime, follow Duece Marly on Spotify so when it drops, you'll have it. Duece Marly's upcoming project is due early 2021.
