

Earvin Eugene is Famous, he is attracting literary agents and publishers

There is mania around his life

New York City, Oct 7, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Earvin has humble beginnings. Being born in Queens, New York. Moving to Elmont, New York. Now living in Suffolk County, Long Island, New York. He is quoted saying, "I want to make something of myself." It seems Earvin wants a partnership with real support. We are aware that many businesses attempt to capitalize on good creators without providing true investments. Over time we see corporations profiting over individuals without giving the individual all that he or she is worth. Earvin states, "I want a connection that is serious. It is not enough to market, promote, and endorse me. You should truly invest in me. You found me appealing to begin with now let's grow together." We can tell Earvin Eugene is ambitious. He does not seem to be satisfied. "PLAY" audiobook album is successful! It was released recently. Earvin is already working on future projects. He is committed. We think he needs a company that matches his efforts. There is speculation of a project called, "Better Live Now". Let's see if it reaches expectations of "PLAY"! Earvin says, "Whatever happens, happens. Work comes first. You will attract the right people with that mindset."
