As the granddaughters of legendary Funk and R&B maestro George Clinton, the Clinton cousins' gift for music came naturally, but not without effort and commitment. Kandy Apple Redd has been on the road for the past decade honing their craft performing in concert with Parliament-Funkadelic over 200 nights a year. It was on tour where they met Isotopia magic maker, Constance Hauman who pledged to work to polish their proverbial apple.

Written by Paul Hill and Kandy Apple Redd with production by Atlanta's Jamm Lewis, "Do Things" received a global assist from Dublin based engineer James Darkin (Gavin James, Kanye West, Sinead O'Connor, Rihanna). The forthcoming music video, which took a year to create, was lensed by award winning director Video God, and produced by Constance Hauman. Filmed in various locations around the city it's a "love letter" to Pre-pandemic New York.
