Get to know Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner, Jessica Ann St Jean, who serves patients in Boston, Massachusetts.

New York City, Oct 16, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Jessica is a board-certified family nurse practitioner specializing in thoracic surgery, medical aesthetics, facial aesthetics (including Botox, dermal fillers, CoolSculpting), CoolTone, and skincare. Since January of 2004, she has been working at Brigham And Women's Hospital.

Brigham and Women's Hospital is the second largest teaching hospital of Harvard Medical School and the largest hospital in the Longwood Medical Area in Boston, Massachusetts. Its mission is to maintain and restore health through leadership in compassionate care, scientific discovery, and education.

Throughout her academic career, Jessica graduated with her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree from the University of New Hampshire in 2003. From there, she went on to earn her Master of Science in Nursing degree (Family Nurse Practitioner Program) from Rivier University in 2019.

In order to stay up to date in her field, she remains a member of several professional organizations, including the Massachusetts Nurses Association, the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, and the Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing.

A Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP-BC) is an advanced practice registered nurse who holds board certification and works autonomously or in collaboration with other healthcare professionals, to deliver family-focused care. Given the rather broad nature of the "family" patient population focus, FNP's offer a wide range of healthcare services that revolve around the family unit; from health promotion and disease prevention to direct care and counseling across the lifespan.
