New York City, Oct 6, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Chambers is a board-certified family physician whose clinical interests include gynecologic care, dermatology, ADHD, and geriatrics. She has been affiliated with Falmouth Hospital since May 1, 2001 & is a member of Cape Cod Preferred Physicians.

A part of Cape Cod Healthcare, Falmouth Hospital is a 95-bed, private medical center located in Falmouth, Massachusetts. It is supported by an excellent medical staff of 54 primary care and pediatric physicians and more than 108 specialists with a mission “to coordinate and deliver the highest quality, accessible health services, which enhance the health of all Cape Cod residents and visitors.”

Pertaining to her academic career, Dr. Chambers obtained her medical degree from the Michigan State University College of Human Medicine in 1992. She then went on to complete her internship at Alameda County Medical Center, followed by her residency in family medicine at Mercy Health Saint Mary’s.

Following her training, she attained board certification in family medicine through the American Board of Family Medicine, a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Among Dr. Chambers’ most notable achievements, she has been the recipient of Compassionate Doctor Recognition (2011, 2012, 2013, 2015, 2018), Patients’ Choice Award (2011, 2012, 2013, 2018), and On-Time Doctor Award (2014, 2015).
