

Passionate Young Coach Brings Diversity and Savvy to SportsEdTV Basketball Audiences

Before Injury Ended Her Basketball Playing Career, Ariana Arabtig Led Nation in Blocks

Miami, Oct 16, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - SportsEdTV has broadened its basketball coaching and contributing faculty by adding Ariana Arabtig as a contributor, bringing her young and diverse perspective to the FREE, unlimited, online leader in sports instruction.

“Our basketball director, NBA veteran Mark Strickland, calls Ariana a great up and coming coach and her addition will attract young and female segments of the growing basketball community which we love,” said Robert Mazzucchelli SportsEdTV Founder and Chairman.

Arabtig led American high school athletes in blocks and was in the nation’s top ten in rebounding before injuries ended her playing career and disappointed college coaches from the University of Miami, Drexel, Colgate and South Florida who vied for her collegiate commitment.

“Ariana Arabtig’s basketball story is one of triumph, adversity, passion and determination which is mirrored in her coaching, and we’re excited to share her with our young and diverse audiences,” added Victor Bergonzoli, CEO of SportsEdTV.

She began as a YMCA youth coach, moving to formal coaching in the Miami/Dade County school system, ultimately returning to the scene of her on-court outstanding play, Coral Reef Senior High School to coach where today she is the head coach of the girls basketball team.

About SportsEdTV: SportsEdTV exists to help athletes, coaches and parents LEARN, WIN and CELEBRATE. We don’t expect everyone who uses our learning tools to become a world champion - that’s not our mission.

We do expect people who use our educational resources to become their own champion, by whatever definition they view success in their chosen sport. For some, success is making the varsity team, for others, it’s becoming country champion, and for others still, it may simply be gaining proficiency at a sport that offers a lifetime of fun and fitness.

To us, no matter your aspirations in sport, if you are striving to improve, you are winning! As a leading sports education media company, we provide FREE video and blog content to anyone in the world with an internet connection.

We also offer a global online community, where athletes, parents and coaches can interact, connect, chat, share content and find new friends. SportsEdTV videos feature coaching from world-class coaches and athletes - many of whom are or have coached world-champions - and have been watched by viewers in every country in the world.
