Get to know Board-Certified Family Nurse Practitioner, Rachael Smith, who serves patients in Panama City, Florida.

New York City, Oct 15, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Rachael, a board-certified family nurse practitioner, is in practice with The Magnolia Medical Group in Panama City, Florida.

The Magnolia Medical Group is the leading health care provider in family medicine and accident care. Its primary goal is to “make everything right” and make the hurt go away.

Over two decades ago, Rachael originally began her health care career as an emergency medical technician. She then pursued her interest in nursing, graduating with her Associate’s Degree in Nursing from Gulf Coast State College in 2014. From there, she went on to earn her Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree and her Master of Science in Nursing degree (Family Nurse Practitioner Program) from Chamberlain University: College of Nursing & Public Health in 2016 and 2020, respectively.

Throughout her career, Rachael has worked primarily in acute care and family practice settings, giving her a diverse background. She is also an active member of the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, and holds certification in Basic Life Support through the American Heart Association.

A Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP-BC) is an advanced practice registered nurse who holds board certification and works autonomously or in collaboration with other healthcare professionals, to deliver family-focused care. Given the rather broad nature of the “family” patient population focus, FNP’s offer a wide range of healthcare services that revolve around the family unit; from health promotion and disease prevention to direct care and counseling across the lifespan.

On a more personal note, Rachael is married.
