Clarksville, Oct 27, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Emotional privation can be the turning point in one's life that encourages shredding the heaviness out of life. This instinct worked as a catalyst for the unforgettably talented R&B songstress Camilla Covington. She is the upcoming musician in the evolving music scene of 2020, who draws inspirations from outstanding singers like Corinne Bailey

Rae, Amy Winehouse, and Lily Allen. She performs the same tactic of recreating moments from the flashbacks and forges the lyrics with the mystique of her storytelling. Music is the weapon she has wielded to protect her soul from breaking down like a glasshouse. She uses her fearless personality to compose songs that pull the curtain from the romantic flames in her life with the new song 'White Kia'.

She is a huge fan of legendary singers of the 90s and understands her strong connection with classic R&B music. She paints her musicality with the trails of her prowess in contemporary hip hop style and soaks every key into the meander of R&B and soul harmonies. Her unworldly, sugary vocals are the treat for music lovers who want to perceive peace. With the sizzling jazzy effects, she wins millions of hearts for the big hit 'Little Women'. She is unforgivingly wild and honest with her music and embraces every petty moment in her life that ignites sparks as a new composition. She sings about extremely personal experiences without concealing any corner of her heart from the world.

Camilla Covington presents a crisp and colorful performance in the latest single 'White Kia'. Her style can never go passé because she sings about her reality with minute details. Her style of storytelling is heart-felt and works as an antidote for the damsel in distress. The new track is an emotional ride with the same universal rule of moving on.
