

Tarak Doddala - The man of unwavering spirit and undeterred zeal

A Visionary and Ideas Bank Who Sees Tomorrow Today with his Multi - Domain Exposure and Expertise

Hyderabad, Oct 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - The man of unwavering spirit and undeterred zeal to rise above the odds is what makes Tarak Doddala outshine in his best light. An immense believer of homeopathy, today, he is the CBO of Homeolife. He started his illustrious career with a hope to mark a difference in the field of Homeopathy and Ayurveda. He first started his journey as a Sr. IT admin with Primus Technologies, Zen Quality Assurance Pvt limited, and OM IT Solutions Pvt limited. He worked with these organizations and eventually moved to the pharma industry and became the MD of Galaxy Retail Pharmacy. This humble man has immense respect for healthcare, wellness and served as the Director of Star Homeopathy & Ayurveda and Co-founder of SWAAS Natural products.

It was indeed a milestone in his career that paved his path towards bigger and better aspirations. However, his career trajectory was satisfactory enough but wanted to do more than just fancy designations. That's what led Tarak to sow the seeds of his one long-cherished dream of starting something of his own. His soul always yearned to establish a company that replenishes mother nature in some way and helps people as well. The passion was there, and now that passion had a name too, the identity of its own– HEORwel. His passionate project materialized despite all the odds, and he finally turned his brainchild into reality.

The firm believer of nature's bounty, miraculous healing essence, and environment-friendly medicinal values assimilates his knowledge, faith, and observations through HEORwel. HEORwel was founded on the sole idea of giving back to mother nature and nurturing mankind. Through various projects such as farm and plot management under the umbrella of HEORwel, along with a few like-minded companions, he took to the voyage to bring in path-breaking greenery solutions and spread awareness about the benefits of ecosystem balance, recycling, and other key environmental issues.

Tarak dearly emphasizes the significance of staying fit. He is a firm believer in maintaining a regular fitness routine and adhering to it with dedication. When it comes to work-life balance, he stresses that if one is mentally and physically fit and takes good care of themselves, work becomes delightful, and one starts taking pleasure in what they are doing. For him, it's not about work-life balance; instead, it's about having balance within oneself.

Tarak believes in setting up priorities from the start. He feels that one must do what they wish to, but should set priorities that matter the most at that point of time and then work accordingly. He says that one should go slowly but steadily, and that way, they can achieve whatever they set their eyes on.
