Edgbaston, Nov 10, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Local business continues to grow during these difficult times, Aqua window cleaning limited are striving to deliver a reliable, professional window cleaning service to both its residential and commercial customers. They also offer additional services from gutter vacuuming to conservatory roof cleaning, just go to aquawfp.co.uk to check the other available services in more detail. Customer satisfaction is the driver of this business and they strive to exceed customer's expectations read some of the feedback from customers both existing and new at aquawfp.co.uk it is all about having a good relationship with our customers, developing new leads via word of mouth, walk-ups and recommendations.

This business is looking to expand in 2021, taking on new areas as they drive further south which will mean job opportunities in the local communities and the surrounding areas. More and more people are turning to Water Fed Pole window cleaners as the results are far better than the traditional methods, no ladders and buckets causing trip hazards and the customers benefit as all frames and doors are cleaned in the process, not just the glass as was the old style of window cleaning.

Aqua window cleaning limited utilise the spot-less water system that is carried on all of our vehicles, thus ensuring spot-free and smear-free windows all the time, every clean just visit the website aquawfp.co.uk to book your next window clean, we guarantee you will be very pleased with the results.

Being a professional business in these current times means they have to adapt to change which has seen them move to a cashless system, so our customers are all asked to sign up to GoCardless which means you never have to worry about having cash available or you forget to make payment with this application everything is taken care of so peace of mind plus secure service for all of our customers.

So I hear you say why Aqua window cleaning limited, simply put you are receiving a quality service from a company that is reliable, customer-focused from the text message the evening before your clean is due to remind you of our visit, to the fact that you know we care about each and everyone one of the jobs we undertake to ensure you get the best results possible from all of our team, every clean.
