

Artlita, a Contemporary Art Gallery, Announces Pop Up Exhibition 'Sharing the Light': Dec 3-13

20 Emerging Artists. 75 Artworks. From $150-$7390.

San Diego, Nov 30, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Artlita LLC, a contemporary art gallery, today announced their first of six pop-up exhibitions planned for Southern California. This is a major move for Artlita on its mission to elevate emerging artists in the Southern California and Baja California regions.

"We are thrilled about our first exhibition located in the Hillcrest area of San Diego. It's an ambitious program featuring 20 emerging artists and 75 artworks ranging from originals to prints, in a variety of sizes and substrates priced from $150 to $7390, making the purchase of real art attainable."

The exhibition includes the auction of Love's Cradle, which is an uplifting encaustic artwork valued at $3000 with starting bids at $2000. The auction will benefit the Choose Love™ Movement, which is a charity whose mission we believe is incredibly timely during this challenging time in our country's history.
