

Connect across seas. Expand your horizons with JustShip!

Are you based in the US, but want to buy something in Singapore? Or are you simply looking to keep updated on the international shipping scene? Meet JustShip.

Singapore, Nov 15, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - JustShip is a Singapore based shipping and delivery courier start-up. They've partnered with FedEx to offer both businesses and consumers cheap international shipping through their high shipment volume. JustShip offers e-commerce packing and shipping solutions to Singaporean businesses with a client portfolio ranging from the fashion industry to the private art sector.

Their consumer's arm has helped more than 600 Singaporean families connect with their loved ones overseas. Their customers approach them with a variety of shipping requests from sending local snacks to international penpals to maternity care packages.

Recently, they've begun to offer buy-for-me services for clients based overseas - just ship it to their warehouse in Singapore, and they'll handle it from there. JustShip offers fast shipping from Singapore to China, shipping from Singapore to France, shipping from Singapore to Australia, shipping from Singapore to Vietnam, shipping from Singapore to India, & shipping from Singapore to UK

For business partnerships, JustShip's industry expertise is shared with Singaporean enterprises to reach out to overseas clients. By outsourcing the workload, these small businesses can properly focus on growth and expansion.

With their cheap, all-in-one shipping service, JustShip has taken the hassle of international shipping and turned it into a business opportunity - international shipping is now accessible and affordable to both ends of the market.

Media Contact

John Wilson

john@prolinkage.com

Source : ProLinkage

See on IssueWire