Based in Los Angeles, the podcast is inspired by both hosts' own "tragedy to triumph" and "hurt to happiness."

Danny McFarland is a Retired Decorated Deputy Sheriff for the Sacramento Sheriff's Department, who was nearly killed and permanently disabled in the line of duty. Danny was dragged halfway hanging out of a suspect's car for 115 yards and slammed into a light pole going approximately 70 MPH. Danny broke his neck, ruptured and herniated several disks in his neck and back, tore ligaments and tendons, obstructed his right vertebral artery, severe nerve damage throughout his body, as well as many other injuries. Danny was awarded the Bronze Star for Bravery & the Purple Heart. After healing himself holistically, Danny has catapulted into a professional acting career.

Dr. See Love is an Author, Speaker, Life Coach & Educator with more than 20 years in the field of Spiritual Psychology and Social Services. She learned to live beyond grief from the unexpected death of her twin brother. Thirty-one years ago, on a turn-around at the end of her brother's freshman year at Morehouse College, their older sister fell asleep behind the wheel of the car losing control of the vehicle. The twin brother was hospitalized and after three weeks on Memorial Day 1989, he died from his injuries. In 2005, her sister passed away from breast cancer. Dr. See Love's extensive experience with loss and grief recovery makes her knowledgeable and engaging to those who have lost love ones.
