ROCKERS ON BROADWAY® is the original Broadway rock concert series that is a fun, unique charity event that features Rock Musicians and Broadway's best "rockin' out" for a great cause. The creative team includes director Donnie Kehr; music supervision by Henry Aronson; video production by Jessica Carollo and is produced by Michael T. Clarkston. Cori Gardner and Y. Dolly Fox are executive producers.

The PATH Fund, Inc. ® is 501c3 a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting arts education and the entertainment community. PATH = Performing Artists That Help -- We are a community of artists, writers, musicians, designers, crew, producers, directors and fans coming together as one, promoting a good cause, sharing in a common goal. We support pre-professional training organizations with scholarships and program funding. Additionally, we work with aspiring writers to develop new works of music and theater. In times of great need, we have allied ourselves and supported notable causes including Disaster Relief, Racial Injustice and Community Need. For more information go to rockersonbroadway.com.
